

Research in Reality: RWE in Long Term AD and PN management

Join us for an insightful exploration of real-world evidence from comprehensive registries on Atopic Dermatitis (AD) and Prurigo Nodularis (PN). This symposium will provide valuable insights into long-term treatment outcomes and their practical applications in clinical decision-making.

Distinguished panel

Chair:

Johanna Mandelin

MD, PhD, Specialist in Dermatology and Allergology

Finland

Speaker:

Lian van der Gang

MD, senior PhD student and investigator of the Dutch BioDay registry

Netherlands

Speaker:

Simon Francis Thomsen

MD, PhD, Professor, Specialist in Dermatology

Denmark

Kim Endre

MD, PhD, Specialist in Dermatology

Norway

Laura Huilaja

MD, PhD, Adjunct professor, Specialist in Dermatology and Allergology

Finland

This symposium offers a unique opportunity to enhance your clinical approach with evidence-based insights from extensive patient data across multiple countries.

Date:

Thursday, May 8th, 2025

Time:

12:15 - 13:15, lunch

Room:

Europaea

Format:

Expert Panel Discussion

Key focus areas

- Analysis of BioDay AD and PN modules
- Insights from registries, including SCRATCH
- Translating real-world evidence into clinical practice